

Gentlemen: Since the recent WRC conference in Geneva there has been much discussion within the amateur ranks concerning the Technician class operator. I am requesting that the FCC consider eliminating the current novice and Technician Plus classes, and permit existing technician class operators to operate on the currently allocated novice hf bands using ssb or cw and no more than 200 watts pep. Thank you for your consideration.